

CHRISTY SEES THE SERIES

Former Star Attends His First Game in Two Years.

By EUGENE F. SAUNDERS
United Press Staff Correspondent

New York, Oct. 7.—"What do I think of the game? Great!"

"How would I like to be out there? I'd like to be there more than sitting here."

Thus Christy Mathewson, the grand old man of baseball, summed up the game of the World Series, and the baseball game he had seen in twenty months.

Unmarked by the long siege of ill, so he has been through, sunbrowned and Indian, hearty and firm of hand, Christy came back yesterday from his tour of the world's aristocracy.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

Christy saw the game from the grandstand behind the wire screen, where he had held a hand-shaking reception.

ent, is touring the New England states, speaking at Boston, Providence, Hartford, Bridgeport, Cambridge and Burlington.

Commander Cook is known in his home city as an active member of the American Legion, the 30 and 3, and the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

The local chapter completed its roster of officers Thursday evening. Mrs. Louise Rodkopf was selected as historian, Frank C. Elmore as chaplain, and Arthur R. Gessner as sergeant-at-arms.

The chapter is now using the ritual authorized by the national convention at San Francisco last June, and initiated four new members following the selection of officers.

The chapter also voted to take a page in the 1923 Savitar.

1923 CONVENTION WANTED

Commercial Club Makes Effort for W. C. T. U. Meeting.

Efforts are being made to bring the 1923 state convention of the W. C. T. U. to Columbia. The convention will be held this year October 10 to 13, in St. Louis.

Eleven years ago this convention was held in Columbia. The Commercial Club has written several letters to members of the organization, among these a letter to Nellie Burger, president of the organization in Missouri, urging her support.

About 300 delegates usually attend and Columbia people are anxious to secure the 1923 convention.

MRS. PENISTEN IS BURIED

All Relatives Attend Services—J. D. Randolph Officiates.

Funeral services were held for Mrs. Mary E. Penisten at 10 o'clock this morning at her home, 301 Valley avenue. The Rev. J. D. Randolph conducted the services.

Besides her husband, Mrs. Penisten is survived by three children, George H. Penisten of Sedalia, Uriah E. Penisten of Columbia, and Zelma Clee-Strong of Columbia; two brothers and a sister, George D. Howard of Waverly, Ohio, Dr. J. W. Howard of Kansas City, and Mrs. C. W. Watkins of Waverly, Ohio.

All the relatives with their children were present at the funeral this morning.

C. E. Penisten, a brother of Mr. Penisten, and his wife of Newkirk, Okla.; Mr. Penisten's sister, Mrs. C. W. Jones, with her husband and daughter, were also present at the funeral.

War Mothers to Meet.

The War Mothers will meet at 2:30 o'clock Monday afternoon in the Commercial Club rooms. There will be an election of officers at this meeting.

MISS DOBBS EXPLAINS BILL

County Unit Measure Is Discussed at Ward Meeting.

Miss Ella A. Dobbs explained the County Unit bill and its advantages, and Mrs. W. E. Harshie pointed out the task of the women in the coming election, at a ward meeting for Democratic women.

Last night at the home of Mrs. W. P. Dyson, 1502 East Broadway.

Miss Dobbs pointed out that under the County Unit Bill one school board will be elected for the entire county, which will levy uniform taxes throughout the county so that each school district will derive the same advantages.

A county superintendent will be appointed by this board. A town within the county such as Columbia which supports a first class high school is not included within the bill. Miss Dobbs emphasized the fact that each district now levies its own taxes, and consequently the schools vary in the number of actual school days and in the efficiency of the teachers.

Cooperation in the matter of taxation, she said, would eliminate all such differences.

The fair task of the women in the coming election is to get to the polls and vote according to Mrs. W. E. Harshie and get more Democrats into office. Mrs. Harshie discussed campaign plans for Mrs. L. W. St. Clair-Moss and pointed out to the women their part in the campaign. Mrs. Harshie stated that there should be 1000 members of the Women's Democratic Club in the county.

COLLEGE MAN SETS STYLES

Local Clothier Says College Towns Are Style Centers.

A Columbia clothier says that college towns are becoming the style centers of the nation. College men, he contends, are the best critics of the latest styles in men's apparel because of their conservative taste. Especially is this true of the styles selected in men's neckwear. The trend of buying in the tie market follows the buying habits of college men; what they students buy, a majority of the consumers will buy.

Perhaps this change in the dictation of neckwear styles for men is occasioned by the development of a conservative taste in the buying habits of the college man. No longer does the student buy the fancy "rah-rah" style ties that he bought several years ago. Instead he now buys ties, either silk or knit, which are neat and not loud in color. Plain colors with thin stripes or small dots are the most popular.

A man seldom buys a new tie because his favorite ties are worn out but because his fancy and taste have been appealed to, or because he has grown tired of his old ties. A man buys a new tie on the average of one a month, and at the average price of $1. The black tie is the most popular because it can be worn appropriately on all occasions.

JIM NEVER MISSES MEALS

Just a Dirty Bob tailed Dog, but He Runs on Schedule.

Trains run on schedules, sometimes, when there are no strikes; and some persons do the same, but for making a schedule and then sticking to it, Jim beats man and man-made monsters.

He is just a little, dirty, bob-tailed dog, but within his head there is a certain amount of gray matter—at least something in his head which works in conjunction with his stomach.

No one punishes him—he is too dirty; but he looks out for Jim. Breakfast at the Commons, and then he disappears, but about noon-time he shows up at the Palms. Evening at the Sampson—Jim has come to eat. Every day it is the same, between 6 and 7 o'clock. According to Mrs. H. R. McAlester, he walks in, and after his evening meal disappears. Where he sleeps is a mystery—perhaps he makes one of the hotels. Anyway, he runs on schedule.

Stock Judging Class to St. Joseph.

A group of students of the advanced live stock judging class of the College of Agriculture went to St. Joseph Wednesday to practice judging on the baby calves and the cattle for the Stocker and Feeder Show. The students with their instructor, D. W. Gittendon, were: E. C. Elting, R. E. Upland, T. E. Carter, J. L. Perrin, Elmer Kaupmeyer, H. A. Hansen, L. S. Meier, Orin McCann, and H. J. Hunt.

Special Wabash Train Tonight.

There will be a special train on the Wabash at 8:45 o'clock this evening on which the High School Day visitors will return to Sturgeon, Centralia and Hallsville. The Grinnell football team will also leave on this train.

Remember the Hopper-Pollard 1 cent sale Oct. 12, 13 and 14. Adv.

Typewriters Repaired Called for and delivered. Call 1820 or 622

Have your Christmas photograph taken this month. We can now give you more time and care.

Blackmore Studio Phone 35

Rainy, Stormy Weather

Students and faculty do not dread disagreeable weather when they can eat at the Commons. Just a step from anywhere on the campus, and just a step back again.

The

COMMONS

Sunday Hours: Breakfast 8:00—9:30; Dinner 12:00—1:00; Supper 5:30—6:45.

Sharpens Appetite Aids Digestion

Colman's D. S. F. Mustard makes everyday foods taste better.

Serve with meats—hot and cold. Use in salad dressing and in making leftovers into appetizing dishes.

Our new recipe book tells how to make the roast or fowl as attractive the second day as the first.

Colman's Mustard is easily mixed. Prepare it fresh in 30 seconds. No waste.

Write today, Dept 92, for new free recipe book and directions for making good food taste better.

J. & J. COLMAN (U. S. A.) LTD.
90 W. Broadway, New York, N. Y.

Be sure to get the genuine Colman yellow can with the BULL'S HEAD

A Wonderful Investment

Would you invest $2,000 or $3,000 if I can prove to you that it will net you at least $1,000 per year? Well, I can do it. If you will buy the Chandler property located on the southwest corner of 8th and Cherry Street of this city, and pay 1-5th of the price down, Mrs. Chandler will carry you for the balance at the low rate of 6 per cent interest for almost as long as you want it.

The property is one that always did and always will rent well, and the net rentals after taxes and interest have been paid, will give you a nice income each year, or if you will apply the difference between the interest, taxes and the rent, the building will soon pay for itself. This building is going to be sold promptly at 10:00 o'clock Monday, October the 9th at auction, and you will be unfair to yourself if you are not present to bid on it. If interested in any good investment, I would like to talk to you about this property.

J. A. Stewart

Sales Manager.

CULL NOW

Then feed the producers the best balanced ration

Red Ring Hen Feed and Red Ring Dry Mash

Certainly you cannot afford to feed a hen that is not a good layer or a pullet that is not properly developed. Get rid of them, then feed for eggs and you will have a profitable flock. Get Red Ring feeds from your grocer or phone No. 9.

Boone County Milling and Elevator Company
Makers of H-P Flour.

YES--

WE REPAIR SHOES
ORIGINAL
Shoes Called for and Delivered
Phone 63

Millers
800 Broadway